Washington, Dec. 20,-The Byitish

program is contingent upon arriving at an agreement concerning their numbers and future use.

British quarters took pains to point out that the agreement on the 5-5-8 ratio between Great Britain, the lint. I states and Japan was conditional upon "a suitable agreement" being worked out for France and Italy. If such an agreement is not worked out with regard to French and Italian ratio, then the whole promise endangered, according to British views.

Flure-Up Is on Wane.

Flare-Up Is on Wane.

The flare-up occasioned by France's demand for ten new chpital ships began to die down today.

Realizing their position on the capital ship issue is untenable and impossible of recognition by the other powers, the French are willing to withdraw from it on the condition that they are adequately taken care of in the matter of auxiliary ships—submarices, light cruisers, simplane carriers, e.c., bur principally in the matter of submarines.

Want Modern Nays.

The French want their nays "modernized" and they will conduct a suremous campaign for it behind the great bronze doors of the Fan-American building. They have practically so post-war capital ships, and they will insist the permission be given hem to bring their navy up to date. It was freely predicted in conference circles today that in view of descopments in the last forty-eight ours. France will accept a capital practic of around 1.7 or 2, as company of the finite of around 1.7 or 2, as company or many purpose unless and units supplied by the rate of around 1.7 or 2, as company or many purpose unless and units supplied by the rate of around 1.7 or 2, as company or many purpose unless and units supplied by sufficient water for successful irrigation. Japan and the United States, d will thereafter wage unceasing arfare for a big submarine allotment.

Great Britain Stands Mone.

"The variety of service done by these charitable institutions shows the state in action in behalf of its unfortunate citizens suffering from mental and physica. Ills," ways the latest report of the board of administration. "The number of those seeking this ministry is limited only by the capacity of the several institutions to receive them. In some instances the crowded conditions reuire that pations sieep upon the floor. This is especially true of the hospitals for the linsane."

Commenting on the fact that both the Boys' industrial school at Topeka, and the Girls Industrial school at Beloit have a population beyond capacity, the board says:

"This crowded condition is found in all the correctional institutions of the state. Offences against the law are more frequent and more serious that they were before the World war. The general unsettlement of the habits of life; the false standards of living and the extravagant tastes that have resulted from high wages and the passion for show; the mistaken notions about work and the mad desire to get something for nothing—these are some of the influences that are leading people to violate the rights of property, the rights of personal virtue and the rights of personal vi

A private session of the Dail Eireann held late this afternoon was devoted to discussion of the position and resources of the Irish republican army in the event the Anglo-Irish treaty now pending before the Dail, was rejected, it was understood after the conclusion of the session.

"The people will break this treaty within a year," he said, "We should throw this treaty at England as a subversion of Sinn Fein principles. We have become West Britons after a seven hundred-year fight."

When Dail Eireann convened today, Eamonn de Valera announced his intentio, to present his motion for adoption of "alternative proposals" when the Dail is ready to vote for ratification of the treaty brought back from London, He did not indicate.
